KAHN SAYS THE ARMY TOO SMALL

INVASION OF GERMANY SLOW

Says He Will Recommend Bill Providing for 175,000 Men.

March Into Coal Region Is Postponed Until Next Week

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Chairman Kahn of the military affairs committee told the house today that an enlisted force of one hundred sixty-eight thousand men, as fixed by the army appropriation bill, was too small and that at the proper time he would offer an amendment increasing the number to one hundred seventy-five thousand men.

"I am not an alarmist, I am not afraid of war, but we all know that world conditions are unsettled," he declared "and in the interest of true economy, in the interest of the welfare of the country, I shall appeal to the membership of this house to support such an amendment."

Answering the demand for reduction of government expenses Kahn declared the secretary of war could be trusted absolutely to cut expenses wherever possible without injury to the military establishment.

Police Court Judge Reports Increase in Week's Business

The Ada police court is doing a good business now, according to a report made by Police Judge Gary Kitchens today. The court is having an increase in business same as any other and the mayor was very emphatic in his declaration that law and order would prevail in the city, come what might.

The cases on docket was one against Bee Shaw for speeding. He was found guilty and fined $25. Another was against Arthur Keltner for being drunk. He was thrown in jail and proceeded to break up all the fixtures and as a result had two more charges filed against him. He is now charged with being drunk, disturbing the peace and destroying public property. He will be given trial at four this afternoon.

Rannie Anderson was also fined $8.75 for being drunk. Two boys were caught Wednesday night while trying to break into the Coffman, Bobbitt and Sparks hardware store. They were caught just after they had forced an entrance to the store by the night watchman. Police officers were called and took the boys into custody. The mayor turned them over to the county authorities yesterday. The boys gave names of Benton and Fitch. Their given names could not be learned.

OKLAHOMA HOUSE GRINDING BILLS

Appropriation Bill for State Institutions Coming Today.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 29.—

The house of representatives of the Oklahoma legislature was again prepared today to take up discussion of the institutional appropriation bill. The bill was expected from committee yesterday but was not reported out. It is now expected late today following a statement to that effect last night by Chairman Bailey of the house appropriation committee.

The house yesterday devoted itself to deficiency appropriation bills, passing a deficiency bill for the University of Oklahoma and for the Oklahoma A. & M. college. The University bill carried a total of $250,000 while the A. & M. college bill appropriated $100,000. An attack on Stratton D. Brooks, president of the university, was made by Roy D. Harp, republican floor leader, in the course of the debate on the measure. President Brooks was defended by Ralph D. Hardy, republican of Norman.

The house also passed a bill setting aside $100,000 to pay expenses of the special session of the legislature.

New Grocery Store Will Be Ready for Business Tomorrow

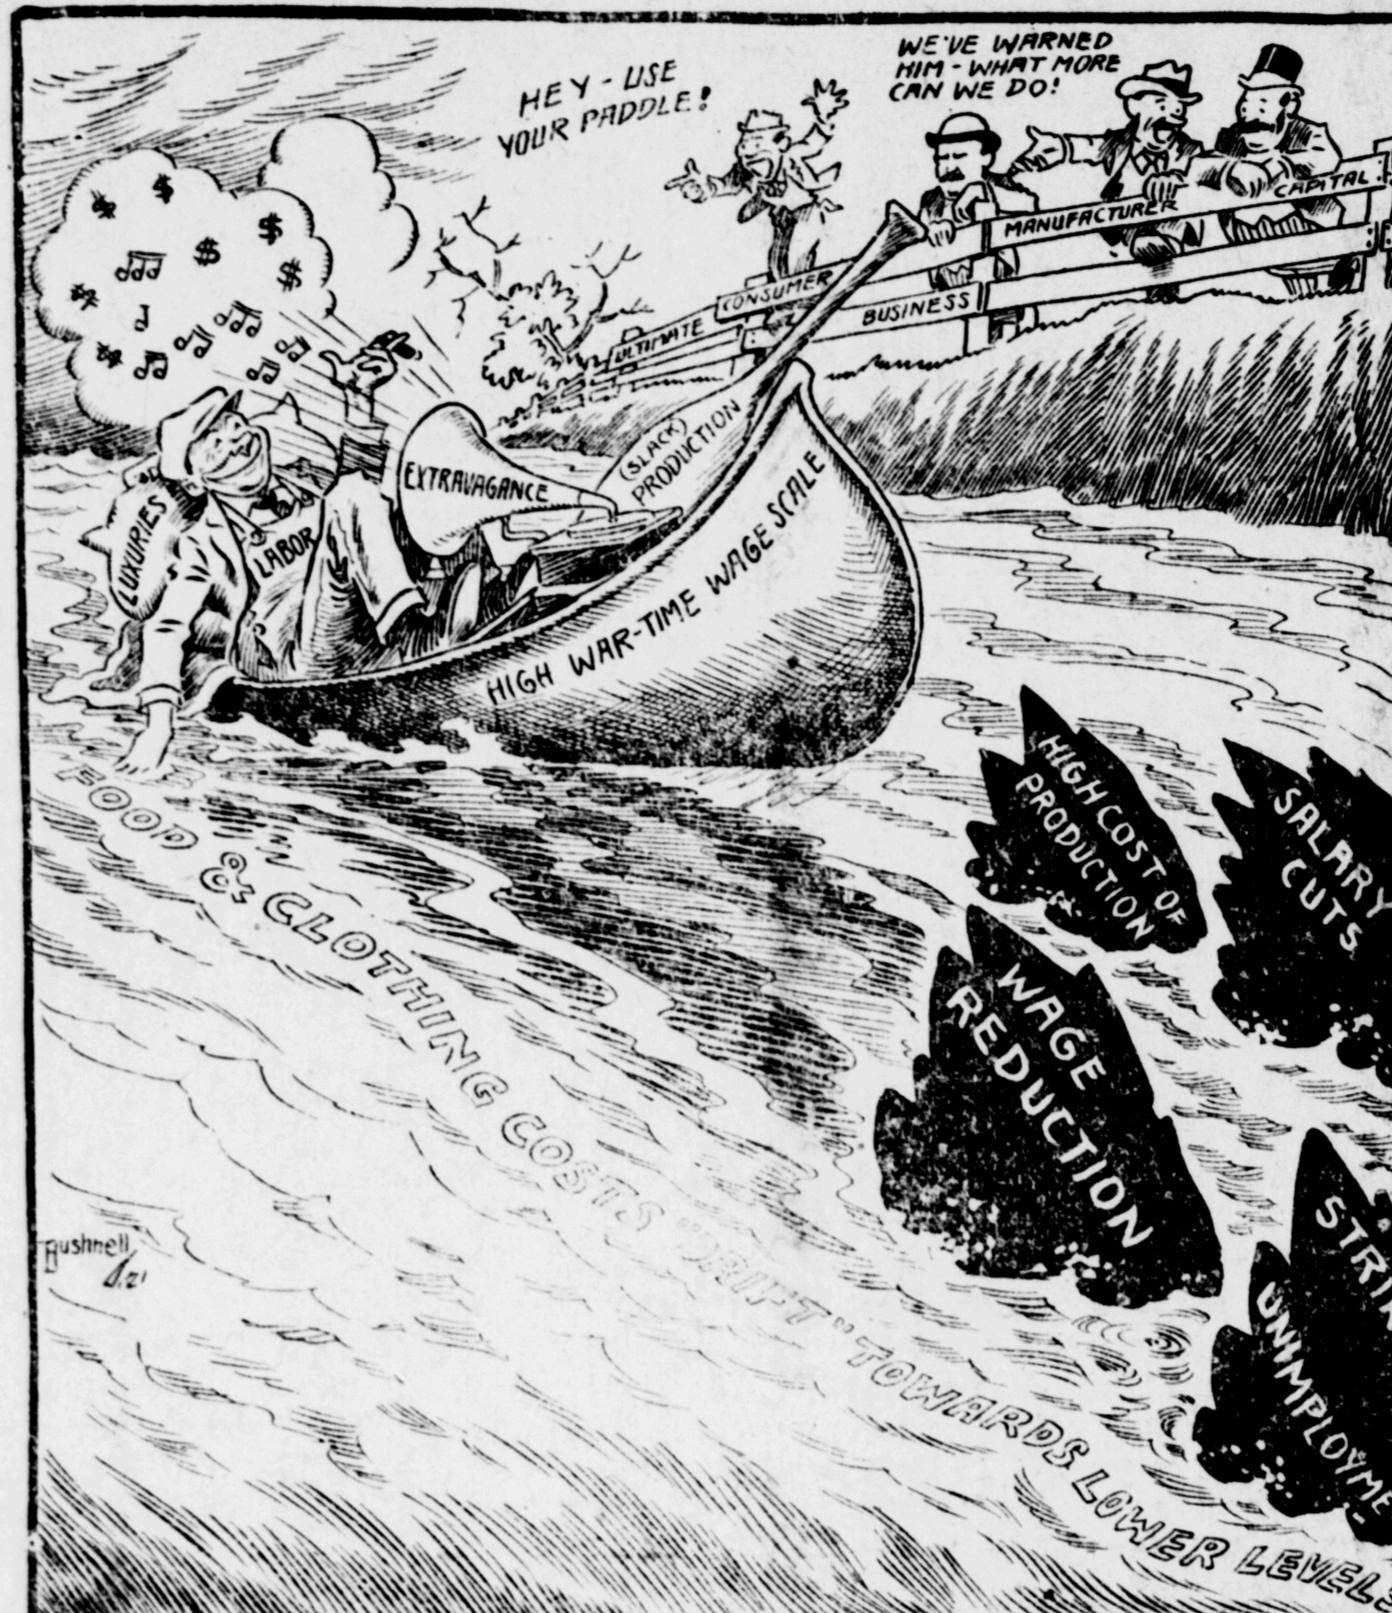

A corporation, known as the Hynds Grocery company, will open a grocery store tomorrow afternoon at 204 West Main, the building recently vacated by the Sadler grocery company.

The corporation is owned by J. C. Hynds, H. G. Hill and E. L. Evans. Mr. Hynds is well known here as a successful grocer, having had more than six years experience in this city. F. L. Evans has worked as warehouse foreman for the Frisco company here the past two years and has many friends. H. G. Hill, the other member of the firm came here recently from Greenville, Mississippi, where he had a number of years experience in the grocery business.

Mr. Hill and Mr. Evans will have the active management of the business and Mr. Hynds will assist them in handling of the business. The fixtures were bought at the Nee & Co., bankrupt sale, last Monday and a line of new groceries has been bought.

AHOY, THERE—JAGGED ROCKS AHEAD!

TAKES OVER HOLDINGS OF G. E. NANCE FOR CONSIDERATION OF HALF MILLION DOLLARS—PAPERS IN ESCROW AT SECURITY STATE BANK—DEAL COMPLETE EXCEPT FOR FINAL EXECUTION OF LEASE TITLES.

One of the biggest oil deals ever pulled off in the southwest—certainly the biggest ever consummated in Pontotoc county—took place yesterday afternoon when George A. Lowry, for the Lowry Oil corporation of Muskogee, purchased the interests of Mr. G. E. Nance in the Carter-Nance-LaSelle Oil Syndicate for the enormous sum of five hundred thousand dollars.

Articles of agreement and all details of the transaction were placed in escrow in the Security State Bank yesterday afternoon, and nothing remains to complete the deal other than the final execution of the titles to the holdings and the passing of a half million dollar check to Mr. Nance.

Mr. Lowry is the gentleman who purchased the lease on the Indian allotment of Robert Norman Hatchet, when sold at public outcry several days ago, paying for same the sum of $70,500. The Lowry corporation also had many other valuable holdings in the field before making the purchase of the Nance interest. He has been in Ada ever since the new well was discovered, and now that his principal operations, for some time at least, will be here, he has opened offices in Ada. The main offices of the company are now at Muskogee.

The Lowry Oil Corporation is only two years old, but it has numerous valuable holdings in Texas and Oklahoma oil fields and its monthly income from oil is at least fifty thousand dollars per month. It is a ten million dollar corporation and claims to have returned to original stockholders fifty per cent of their original investments since it has been in operation.

The deal between Mr. Lowry and Mr. Nance was negotiated by H. N. Lane, an oil broker of Wichita Falls, Texas, who is also an investor in the Ada field. Mr. Lane has taken an active interest in the field ever since its opening and is very enthusiastic over the prospects of a most wonderful development.

It is understood that the consummation of this deal means that the work at the well will proceed with vigor at once and that it will be only a short time now until the public will know just what the new well is and what it will mean for Ada and Pontotoc county.

Nine convicted men are at liberty. The others having reached the penitentiary or being on their way, it was said. Only one of the conspiracy chiefs is behind the bars, however, the others at Leavenworth being termed "small fry," or men who happened to get in the way of the wartime dragnet.

Of the nine men who are free, six are looked upon as chief instigators of the anti-war activities. Three of these six are believed to be holding "cabinet" positions in the Russian soviet government and three are believed to be in this country.

Two of the remaining three who have not surrendered are expected to give up within a few days. Ralph Chaplin, editor of "Solidarity," once the official I. W. W. organ, was said by federal officials to be the only "big gun" in the conspiracies, who is now at Leavenworth.

"Big Bill" Haywood is authoritatively to be minister of propaganda for the soviet government with the task of spreading its doctrines through many countries. Officials have lost hope that Haywood will return to this country.

Strike Confab Deadlocks.

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 29.—Negotiations for the settlement of the coal strike having become a deadlock through the rejection yesterday of the government's temporary subsidy offer by the representatives of the miners, the three parties to the dispute, the miners, the owners and the government, have once more returned to their respective camps to consider who should make the next attempt to negotiate a settlement, and what form that move should take.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 29.—The state supreme court today denied retrial to A. C. Townley, Non-Partisan League leader, and Joseph Gilbert, former organization manager of the Non-Partisan League, convicted on a charge of conspiracy to teach sedition. The case was brought to trial June 23, 1919.

Taxes Come as Regular as Rent

This is the last week for payment of taxes.

There must be an end to all things. The time for paying the taxes which were due January 1, by an act of the legislature was extended to April 30. The extended time will expire with the present week.

D. W. Swaffar, county treasurer, announces that payments are about on a par with last year and that most people have paid, but there are some who have not paid and he desires to notify them that after next Saturday all taxes not paid will be declared delinquent and penalty will attach.

Not only that, but if you fail to pay the first half of your tax by tomorrow night, the whole amount becomes due and subject to penalty.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Ada, the home of the East Central State Normal school, is accessible from all parts of the district. From the north, south and east the Katy and Frisco railroads maintain good service while from the west there are two trains daily on the Santa Fe.

To secure consideration in the matter of lodgings for Friday night all entries must be in not later than April 18. Entries for the meet positively close for both classes on April 20. On account of the immense number of entries in these meets the above requirements are necessary. Upon receipt of the entries properly certified by superintendent or principal assignment of rooms will be made and the contestant upon his arrival in Ada should call immediately upon the assignment committee at the Normal for his card. This card identifies him and directs him to his lodging. No person should be entered who will not directly be present and take part in the meet. Official entry blanks have been prepared upon which entries must be made. Comfortable accommodations are assured all contestants at reasonable rates.

Ada has a cheap jitney service and numerous eating houses and lunch rooms. Lunch will be served at noon on both days at a very reasonable price, in the Normal cafeteria. It will cater especially to the demands of the track athletes but will be prepared to take care of all. A check room for the convenience of visitors, will also be maintained.

IMPORTANT!

Every athlete should be equipped with a blanket, heavy wrap or bath robe.

On account of so many events, many of them will be run simultaneously. Enter only those you will be able to get into.

Read carefully the general program. If you are in an event that requires preliminaries, be present when they start.

The management will not be responsible for lost or stolen articles. Make use of the check room.

If there are things in this bulletin that are not clear, investigation should be made at once. Do not wait until the day of the meet to clear up the problems. Address all communications to E. C. WILSON, Ada, Oklahoma.

300,000 Bale Goal Has Been Reached By Cotton Growers

W. L. Walker, field man and organizer for the Oklahoma Cotton Growers' association, returned to Oklahoma City this morning, after spending two weeks in Pontotoc county securing members for the association. Mr. Walker said to a representative of the News just before leaving the city that he is well pleased with the results of the campaign here and expressed the opinion that when the final count is made a few days hence Pontotoc county will have in the neighborhood of five hundred members in the association.

It was explained that the membership campaign drive in this county was started later than in most of the other cotton growing counties of the state and that most of the real work has been done during the last two weeks. Mr. Walker said the farmers of the county are becoming very enthusiastic about the work which the association proposes to do for them and they are joining the organization readily.

Just before leaving the city, Mr. Walker was reliably informed that the association has already secured the 300,000 bales which was established as the goal to be attained by May 1. He expressed the opinion that the leaders of the

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels.

movement would call for an election at an early date, authorizing the election of the board of directors, which will take charge of the organization and begin at once the work outlined for them.

Mr. Walker was of the opinion that the association would continue to accept members until May 1, the date originally set to conclude the membership drive, but he was not certain about the matter, nor could he say whether the present rates for membership would obtain after the new board of directors is elected. He did say, however, that those farmers who joined between now and next Saturday would be protected and admitted to membership.

A committee which is at work in this county is calling farmers to join, will report at a meeting to be held at the court house next Saturday. This will, in all probability, be the last soliciting to be done in Pontotoc county for the association.

shell of the building and prevent the flames from spreading to the two residences which, for a time were threatened.

The garage contained nothing of value. The top and body of a Ford truck, which stood nearby were burned considerably before the firemen arrived. The car owned by Mr. Brown, can be repaired at a small expense. The garage was partly covered by insurance.

The garage stood at the rear of, and equidistant from, the Hill and Brown residences, and a strong south wind carried the flame dangerously close to them for a time. The promptness of the firemen in reaching the fire and their efficient work in putting it out, without a doubt saved a much greater property loss.

SCOPE OF STATE FAIR INCREASED FOR THIS SEASON

More than $40,000 are offered in premiums and purses for the Fifteenth Annual Oklahoma State Fair and Exposition to be held this year at Oklahoma City, September 24 to October 1.

Not only have premiums been increased materially and many new departments added, but General Manager I. S. Mahan promises an amusement and racing program second to none in 1921 fairdom. The planting of evergreens and the building of several new drives, together with the renovating and relocating of the swine barns and poultry and other buildings, have greatly enhanced the fair grounds which cover more than 160 acres.

Child Taking First Smoke Said to Have Caused Fire Saturday

A hand-made corn cob pipe, an ounce of ground coffee swiped from the pantry, a few matches and a boy—a four-year-old boy—are said to have been the chief causes of the fire Saturday afternoon, which destroyed a frame garage building jointly owned by Sam Hill and W. F. Brown at 601-3 East Thirteenth and for a time endangered their homes.

The youngster was taking his first smoke, using coffee instead of tobacco in the pipe. In some unknown way, some loose straw on the floor caught fire and quickly spread to

DON'T BE DISCOURAGED.

Entirely too many people seem to think that Ada's whole future now depends upon the outcome of the Carter-Nance-LaSelle well, over which there has been so much speculation for the past few weeks.

True, it will be regrettable if the well proves to be a "bloomer" and what the great majority hope and seem to think it is. At the same time if this well should prove to be as dry as a powder house, when it is finally drilled in, it does not mean that oil activity will come to an abrupt end in Pontotoc county.

There has been too much money invested by big oil men in the new field for it to be abandoned simply because one well proves to be a failure. Too many of the big companies have already prepared to drill in this field, and have too much faith in the field, to be bluffed off at this stage of the game. It will take more than one dry hole to convince them that the whole field is dry.

Not only that, but there are too many signs of oil in big quantities for any one to be materially discouraged. Oil of some kind, at some depth and in some form has been found in nearly every hole drilled anywhere in this county. These signs do not fail. It is certain that there is oil here in paying quantities—we do not believe anyone will question that statement—and it is only a question of waiting until some driller stumbles onto the real pool.

No, if the new well is a disappointment—and we can't believe that it is—there is no use to say that the game is dead in Pontotoc county. On the other hand it means that we have yet started, and that there still is some preliminary work to be done in the way of prospecting—that's all.

PRICES HIGH ENOUGH ALREADY

Rent prices, and all other prices for that matter, are high enough in Ada now, and have been all the while, without making drastic raises now that it seems probable that we are to have an oil boom in the near future.

Many towns and cities have given themselves black eyes from which they will never recover, simply because they undertook to "clean up" and make a bunch of easy money at the expense of strangers and newcomers.

Let us be content with reasonable profits; let us encourage growth by making it easy for homesekers to procure homes; let us give the glad hand to the stranger and treat him as though he had been with us always; let us NOT kill the goose that will lay the golden egg.

If we will do these things, and in addition keep the town clean and make the thugs, "stick up" men and all others who try to live by their wits give Ada a wide berth, we will grow and prosper, and the name and fame of the city will go to the further ends of the land. Otherwise we will commit social and industrial suicide and we will deserve our fate.

THE HABIT OF SAVING.

You believe the world-war was a curse, do you? Maybe it was, but surely this does not disprove the philosophy which we have so long believed in, that every adversity is a blessing in disguise.

We could name a hundred distinct blessings which have come out of this war, but instead we will name one—THE SAVING HABIT.

Before the war started Americans had developed a very dangerous habit—the habit of spending! We were living beyond our means and teaching our children to do the same. If ever the age of worship of the God to Mammon was upon us, it was just prior to the war. Not only America, but the whole world had gone mad over money.

But the law of compensation is ever at work. Perhaps the puny little German kaiser was a mere tool at the hands of this great law—who knows?

Anyway, the war swept over the face of the earth and started us to cultivating the saving habit. And, best of all it started this habit at the right end of the human race—with our young. The Thrift Stamp was created and through a systematic work in the public schools our children's minds were diverted from the habit of poking their pennies into the chewing gum slot machine, to the habit of investing them in Thrift Stamps.

Let's keep the Thrift Stamp habit in the public schools. If the United States government does not need the money and does not believe it worth while to carry on the habit as a part of the child's educational process, then let our private banks organize the public schools and systematically collect the pennies and nickles under some plan similar to that of the Thrift Stamp.

This would be profitable to the Savings Departments of the banks and doubly so to the school children.

Most of us can get hold of all the money we need, but few of us indeed can accumulate enough to see us through periods of sickness, unemployment and old age. We all have the spending Habit, but very few of us have the saving habit.

Gentlemen of the banking industry, here is a million dollar tip that you may have by merely utilizing it; an idea that will profit all parties concerned.

PARENTS, INVESTIGATE!

Who are your children's playmates?

Do you know?

You should!

With summer vacation time approaching your child will spend hours in and about the homes of his little playmates. What will the influences be that surround it there?

Had you thought about that?

As a parent you should call upon the parents of your child's little friends. It promotes neighborliness and it is a good thing for you and your child.

Look out for the real estate sharks and rent hogs. They always follow in the wake of oil strikes or other booms that bring a flash of prosperity.

On May 1 the printers are to strike for a 44-hour week. That would mean Saturday afternoon off if they took the saving all at one time. Suppose they need that half day off to spend the wages they make during the other few hours of the week?

When an employee tells you how he is going to run your business, that's unionism. When you tell him how you would like to have your business run, that's tyranny. When they both tell each other to go to h---, that's anarchy.

We understand that beds and rooms and eats and all such things as that have gone up in price since the oil men took the town. We haven't heard whether the bootleggers have raised "singlings" from five dollars or not.

A newspaper editor at Chanute, Kansas, wired the News yesterday asking that we send him a night letter telling him all we could about the new oil well in fifty words. You can't tell a man much with fifty words, but we'll bet that he got more encouragement in that night letter we sent him than he ever had rolled into that sort of a news dispatch before.

There's a noise in the South Broadway neighborhood now that sounds like paving. That progressive bunch out there simply can't stand for old Townsend to put one over while they snooze. Look out for a petition, Mr. Mayor, for we Broadway "ginks" are not going to be caught sneaking down Townsend after she paves. Not by a jug full.

We hope that the bankers understand the bank statements they publish. Nobody else does.

A tragedy of spring—the passing out of the well known buckwheat cake.

Oklahoman: There may be dull times somewhere, but Ada and Duncan know nothing of it.

McAlester News-Capital: It seems that Gov. Robertson's touching little ditty, entitled: "Let By-Gones be By-Gones," has been answered by the Republican chorus: "We'll be here, 'till the last cat dies."

Shawnee News: Locating a new oil well close by Shawnee is becoming such a common thing nowadays that it hardly causes comment. But when one of these wells comes in a producer there will be noise enough.

Vinita Journal: The members of the lower house of the state legislature are taking a slap at the governor by wearing on their coat lapels: "Wolves and Hyenas, not convicts." The governor recently declared that the members of the lower house were not as good citizens as the convicts in the state penitentiary.

Pathfinder: Under Wilson we had "Col." House to represent this country in Europe, and under Harding we are to have "Col." Harvey. Must be some fatality which dooms us to have a fake "Col." H. as our sponsor over there. What has become of the real colonels?

Fort Worth Record: According to a Chicago correspondent the American farmer needn't worry over the hired man problem this season. A Chicago employment agent advertised that he had a job for a field hand. An hour after his office had been thrown open 157 men applied personally for the one job. He said that more than a thousand applications were received in less than twelve hours. And yet there are Americans who say that the ports should remain open to receive the flood of laborers from European countries.

Must Obey Traffic Laws on Business Streets of the City

No "jay walking" by pedestrians on the main business streets of Ada now. The intersection of Main and Rennie by the Harris hotel, the intersection of Broadway and Main and the crossing of Townsend and Main have been designated as the first three blocks of the city to be patrolled against "jay walking."

This is done to safeguard people against accidents and as more cars and trucks are coming to town every day it will be very necessary for this law to be enforced.

The officers will be instructed to merely warn the people at first when they forget and cut across the streets at the wrong places, but after they have been given plenty of time to get accustomed to this new ruling the law will be more emphatically enforced.

Strange Thoughts Enter Minds of Many People Who Attend The Shows

By the Cub.

What do people think about between acts at shows?

Do they think about the play, do they have some worry on their mind which they are trying to forget or do they merely talk about most any thing to a friend or companion?

These questions offer a wide field for thought. If by going into a theater you happen to sit down by a friend, or you attend a local school play and get a seat next to an acquaintance, you will find it interesting to get the thought which enters the mind of him who sits by you.

Probably he will comment on the appearance of a friend, the past days work, the general conditions of the country, the latest exciting affair, a recent party which he enjoyed or the merit of the play or show. Then, too, there are a number of other things which he may speak of. After keeping an account of several of these thoughts which are imparted by people at shows, the following account is:

At one play, "The End of the Rainbow," given by the students of the Normal, a man was heard to say, "This is the deadliest town I was ever in. My wife won't let me have any rest when I am at home, as she is forever proposing a trip to some place which she thinks would suit her. We have moved three times recently, once to Tulsa, once to Oklahoma City and then when we came here. However there are some mighty good people here. Say, they don't have any dances, or anything like that here do they? Wonder why? Did you hear about that deal I made the other day. Was pure luck as I am not very well acquainted here and happened to meet that fellow by accident. Just struck him in the right frame of mind, too." At this time the curtain rose and the play continued. The fellow conversed in low tones and seemed to enjoy the play immensely.

A lady was heard to make the following remark while the advertisements were being shown at the McSwain during the week the Henry Roquemore show was in town: "If that lady who lives next door don't keep the little rascal of a son of hers out of my yard I

Resolution

Whereas, Freemason by its precepts directs each of its votaries to shape his life according to the divine law of God, and to live in strict conformity to the laws of his country, and

Whereas, there exists at this time throughout our country and in our own community toward open disregard of the law, and

Whereas, the youth of the community influenced by the prevalent laxity of morals are led to commit those depredations which express contempt for law and a disregard for the rights and property of others, and

Whereas, we regard existing to society and to the morals of our children;

Now therefore be it resolved by Vanoss Lodge No. 271 A. F. and A. M., Vanoss, Oklahoma, in regular communication assembled;

That it is hereby declared to be the duty of every Mason not only to live in conformity to established authority but that he assist all officers in the enforcement of the law.

That it is hereby declared to be an unmasonic act and punishable as such for a Master Mason within the jurisdiction of this lodge to frequent places where drinking and gambling is done whether taking part or not;

That in adopting these resolutions we wish to pay tribute to our deceased friend and brother, P. Nebut, who was stricken down in the performance of his duty.

Mother's Day.

Mother's Day will be observed at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday. Ordinarily the second Sunday in May is observed as Mother's Day but it has been changed to May 1 this year. Every member of the Presbyterian church in the city is requested to be present for the services Sunday morning, beginning at 10:30. The white rose is to be worn by those whose mother has passed to the Heavenly home and the red rose for those with their mother living.

Members will be received at this service and children will also be baptized. The junior and primary Sunday school will give a good program as their children's day service. If your mother is living, bring her with you. If you have a friend who has no mother living, then share your mother with them. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and enjoy these good things.

Boy Returns Home After Being Absent For Twenty Years

Another strange incident in the routine of the old world was brought to light at Citra, Okla., a few days ago when Mr. and Mrs. Nichols of that place were taken by surprise by the return of their son, Robert, whom they had not seen or heard of for 20 years. He came to them last Saturday April 23 and a great time is reported to have been had by his relatives at his return.

He had five sisters out of the 14 members of his family, who have never seen him and he is a minister of the gospel. Bob as he is called is married and has five children and is living near Henryetta, Okla., not a great distance from his relatives. Why and how he lost trace of his family, while living so near them is not known.

AMERICANIZATION DAY WAS SUCCESS

Men in Many Cities Renew Their Pledge of Loyalty.

In 227 cities and towns of Oklahoma true Americans gathered on Thursday in patriotic mass meetings arranged by the American Legion in co-operation with other civic organizations to renew their allegiance to the stars and stripes and to the constitution of the United States.

Posts of the American Legion circulated copies of the American's creed asking that every man, woman and child memorize it and pause in the midst of their work at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning to repeat the pledge which is as follows:

"I believe in the United States of America and the principles of freedom, justice, equality and humanity upon which it was founded and for which American patriots have given their lives and fortunes."

"I believe it is my duty towards my country to love it, to support its constitution; to obey its laws; and to defend it against all enemies."

In Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Muskogee, Ardmore and other large cities of the state, hundreds of foreign born citizens formed in line and marched through the principal streets led by city, county and state officials, war veterans of the American Legion and other patriotic organizations. In Oklahoma City the nationalities of eighteen foreign countries marched under the American flag to show their allegiance to the country of their adoption.

Strong posts in many sections of the state organized country-wide meetings and were joined in picnic with athletic and patriotic features by other posts. At Hollis the Gould and Hollis Legion baseball teams played after the Americanism meeting to which the entire county was invited. Woodward and many other cities followed similar plans.

MR. J. M. VADEN, M. D.

"To that mysterious bourn from which no traveler returns."

Dr. J. M. Vaden was born May 25th, 1862, in Umphres county, Tennessee. His father being a farmer he had the privilege of being reared under those conditions that develop healthful and robust physique, strong and sturdy character—and initiative in life's activities. When he was a youth of about 19 years he undertook to educate himself and prepare for his chosen profession. He attended the common schools of his community at a time. Then went to college at Valparaso, Indiana. After securing his academic preparation he entered Vanderbilt University and took his degree of Doctor of Medicine from that institution.

After graduating from Vanderbilt he practiced medicine in Troy, Tennessee, for some years. It was at this place and during these first years of his professional career that he demonstrated his unusual ability as physician. It was here that he also formed those strong friendships which make life worth living and which in his case remained true and steadfast until the day of his death. He moved from Troy, Tennessee, to Ardmore, Oklahoma, in 1901, where soon, by his splendid character and unusual skill and ability as a physician and surgeon, established himself as one of the leading men in his profession. He was not only a strong man in his profession but he was a man who took great interest in the affairs and enterprises of the community where he lived.

Dr. Vaden was a man who believed in keeping himself well informed and up to date in the knowledge of his profession. As proof of this he took post graduate work frequently from the great medical institutions of our country. He took post graduate work in New York at one time and at another he went to Rush Medical school in Chicago. He had as a partner in his practice at Ardmore Dr. C. E. McNeice. This partnership was entered in 1910, when he moved from Ardmore to Ada. He became associated with Dr. Faust in the hospital in Ada soon after moving to this place. His work in this connection soon revealed to his associates and the community that he was not only a skilled physician but a worthy citizen and a Christian gentleman. He was associated in this connection until his first illness, about 1915, which was caused by paralysis. After he had this stroke he had to give up his practice altogether. For more than six years he suffered the severest pain, yet ever hoping that he might regain his health and again take up his practice, which he so dearly loved, but fate was against him. A second stroke came on Thursday, April 17th, 1921, which brought death in a very few hours.

Dr. Vaden was married on July 26, 1911, to Miss Nola Brown Cloar. As a husband he was as faithful, loyal and devoted as ever husband was to his wife. Theirs was a happy home and even after sickness made him so unwell in both body and mind she who was the wife of his bosom showed love and devotion to him by nursing him with all tenderness and affection for the six years of his affliction.

All that is mortal of him lies in the cemetery at Ardmore where he was interred on Saturday, April 9, 1921. The grass will grow green above his grave, the flowers planted by loving and tender hands will bloom there. The birds will sing their carols in the trees while friends and loved ones will come to visit that place made sacred by his resting there. But while his memory will be revered, he, the big hearted, gentle, Christian man that he was, has gone to meet his reward in the great beyond.

To friends and loved ones who put their trust in Him "Who does all things well," there comes that sweet consolation:

"We'll meet thee and we'll greet thee.
On the never ending shore;
We'll dwell with thee in glory,
To be parted nevermore."

Two Young Men to Have Trial Tomorrow On Burglary Charges

George Fitch and Willie Bennett, two young men who live in this city, entered pleas of not guilty to charges of burglary, when arraigned before Justice W. H. Fisher this morning and their preliminary trials were set down for hearing tomorrow.

Henry Stucco, night watch at the Coffman, Bobbitt & Sparks hardware store, arrested the boys Wednesday night. He says they had entered the building by removing a transom and were looking through the hardware stock when he arrested them.

Fitch claims to be under 18 years of age and Bennett does not look to be any older than he. If it is established at the trial that they are under 18, the cases will be transferred to Judge Tal Crawford's juvenile court for handling. The boys were remanded to jail to await their trial.

Apparently, by the time Congress gets around to do something for disabled soldiers, there won't be any disabled soldiers left.

Noted Woman Artist Sketches Harding; Finds Him Busy Man

Miss Neyra McMein and the sketch she made of President Harding at the White House.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(Special)—The first portrait made of Warren G. Harding since he became president, drawn to the despair of the artist—while he was going about business in the White House, was shown recently by Miss Neyra McMein in her studio. It is a charcoal sketch, requested by the Pan-American Union for exhibition and newspaper purpose in South America.

Miss McMein laughed ruefully at the memory of her two days in Washington while getting the sketch.

"For an easel I had a green plush chair, a stick of wood, two telephone directories and some blue tissue paper," she said. "The executive office is one of the handsomest rooms I ever saw, but it is not lighted properly for art work. Twice the Harding Airedale, Ladie, came over and patted the picture."

"President Harding evidently thought he was being a fine model by staying for a long time in the same room with the artist," said Miss McMein, who was impressed with the president's simplicity.

"It was very interesting to draw Mr. Harding," she continued. "He has a strong face with well defined characteristics."

MATHEMATICS NEEDED IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—Mathematics are necessary in virtually every walk of life, and are helpful in the training of citizenship. Prof. Eugene Smith, head of the department of mathematics, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York asserted in an address here tonight.

Prof. Smith spoke at a banquet given by the National Committee on Mathematical Requirements by the Mathematical Club of St. Louis and vicinity. The national committee held private sessions here yesterday and today, formulating a report on mathematics to be presented to the Federal Bureau of Education.

"Let us imagine, if we can," Prof. Smith suggested, "that by some mighty cataclysm there should be wiped off the face of the earth tonight every book on mathematics, every mathematical symbol of every kind, every written page or written sheet on which a trace of mathematics appears, and every machine for computing or recording numbers. What would happen?"

"Every mill in the whole world would slow down, and every large concern would close until it could replace its accounts, its statistical material, its formulas for work, its measures, its tables, and its computing machinery."

"Every submarine would try to guess its way to the nearest coast. Every ship on the seven seas would be stricken with blindness and would wallow helpless, awaiting the probable starvation of its human burden. Not a rivet would be driven in a skyscraper in New York City because the steel girders would have lost their numbers. Wall street would close its portals; the engineering world would awaken tomorrow morning to a living death; the mines would shut down and trade would relapse to a condition of barter as in the days of savagery."

"It is a picture that is so ridiculous that we smile at it as very impossibility. But it is a real picture, ridiculous though it seems, a picture of the world sending forth the S. O. S. for help, a hurry call for the return of poor old mathematics."

"One reason alone for advocating the study of mathematics is its worth in the training of the citizen, in that it makes him conscious, as is possible in no other way, of his position in the universe about him. To come to some realization, not merely of the depth of known space, but by the methods by which we sound the plumb of these depths to know the connection of the mathematical spiral with the genesis of the solar system, to know something of the way in which we measure the motions of the heavenly bodies, to have some conception of the methods by which we weigh the stars, to know how to reckon time in "light years" and the basis of our assertion that the light which left a certain star when Homer was reciting the Fall of Troy is only just reaching us, think then of the glories which then our universe assumes in the mind of the impressionable youth!"

Discussing the movement to eliminate mathematics as a compulsory study in high schools and colleges Prof. Smith said:

"Some one tells me that not 0.1 percent of pupils attains a mark of 100 in algebra, and that 30 percent fail altogether, but when I reflect that not 0.001 percent of humanity attains a mark of perfect in matrimony, and that many more than 30 percent fail altogether, I do not at once begin a crusade to abolish matrimony."

PRESIDENT'S PARTY REVIEWING FEET

(By the Associated Press)

ABOARD THE PRESIDENTIAL YACHT, Mayflower, off Hampton Roads by Wireless to the Associated Press.

The weather was cold and gray, the skies overcast and clouds hanging low as the hour approached today for the presidential review of the Atlantic division of the American fleet. About the Mayflower played dirigibles and seaplanes flying low to escape the drifting clouds. Shortly after 9 o'clock secretary Denby boarded the Mayflower and greeted President and Mrs. Harding, who then took the bridge.

At 9 o'clock the great battleship, Pennsylvania, appeared out of the haze. She was followed at 500 yard intervals by other members of the Armada. She reached the Mayflower and about a half mile away wheeled smartly and passed in review off the port side. Her opening gun boomed in salute at 9:10.

Over the flagship and extending backward in the pall of smoke hovered a fleet of planes.

VOTE ON PEACE RESOLUTION TO COME SATURDAY

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—An informal agreement for a final vote next Saturday on the Knox peace resolution was reached today by the senate. The agreement was reached after attack on the resolution had been made by Senator Nilson, republican, followed by Senator Underwood, democratic leader, no other senator being ready to proceed. Senators Underwood and Lodge, republican and democratic leaders, arranged that absent members would be notified at the time for the vote and debate ended for the day with the adjournment of the senate.

With the recent death of James Jones, aged negro employee in the senate office building, the whereabouts of the official seal of the Confederacy, an unsolved mystery for half a century, probably will ever remain unknown. Serving as Jefferson Davis's servant when the Confederate chieftain was captured, Jones buried the seal before the Federal authorities could obtain it.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT COMMITTED TO ACT

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, April 28.—The prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George, declared in the House of Commons today that the British government was committed to action, so far as the West Phalen coal fields were concerned, if the German reparation proposals were unsatisfactory. He added, "It is not for me to say whether another opportunity will be given Germany."

The premier said: "I very much regret to say that they are thoroughly unsatisfactory and I wish it had been possible for me to say that they alter the situation."

HUGHES CONFERNS WITH AUCKLAND GEDDES

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sir Auckland Geddes, ambassador from Great Britain, conferred with Secretary Hughes today, arriving at the state department before Sir Auckland left. They were the first of the allied envoys to see Mr. Hughes since he laid the new German reparation proposals before them informally last Thursday.

It was understood that the counselor of the French embassy had an engagement to see Mr. Hughes during the day. He was to act for Ambassador Jusserand, who is absent from Washington and was expected to communicate the decision of his government, that the German offer was unacceptable.

Sir Auckland was with Mr. Hughes for a half hour and when he left the Belgian ambassador was received by the secretary of state. At the conclusion of the visit it was expected that Mr. Hughes would have an accurate knowledge of the decision of the allied governments. There was no indication, however, whether a reply to the German memorandum would go forward tonight.

CAPTAIN ALLEGES MURDER CHARGE IS "PERSECUTION"

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Very shortly after the meeting of the Federal reserve board, Governor Harding will leave Washington for Kansas City, Topeka, Nashville, Oklahoma City and other localities. The board, the governor said, had thought it advisable that he make a tour of the farming area so as to learn at first hand the problems of the country bankers and trade organizations.

The real crux of the farmers problems in the view of Mr. Harding is the foreign situation. "The farmers," he said, "must have a market for their commodities, as they cannot go on indefinitely on credit without selling their crops."

The federal reserve board, Governor Harding says, has no special plan for relief of the farmers. He explained that the reserve banks could not make direct loans to farmers, but could only rediscount the loans of member banks.

To avert the danger of forest fires caused by sparks from locomotives, the officials of the Kussewa railroad of Pennsylvania announced that no trains will be run over that road during dry weather. Inhabitants of the danger zone welcome this decision.

Capt. Robert Rosenbluth.

That Capt. Robert Rosenbluth, U. S. A., is the victim of persecution is the contention of his counsel. The captain is held on $25,000 bail on the charge of killing Major Alexander Cronkhite. The major was shot to death. The case was at first reported as an accident, which occurred while the major was cleaning his pistol. Later Sergt. Roland P. Pothier was arrested and is said to have confessed to shooting the major, but charged that the captain was implicated.

BLAME THE MOVIES IS SO EASY TO SAY

AT last we know when the world "went wicked." It was in 1895 photo-plays were first shown as a form of entertainment. The spread of mumps and prevalence of measles, fish-worm, drownings, birds-egg vandalism, biting finger-nails, scratching fruit, breaking windows, playing "hookey" and all other juvenile horrors have ever since been blamed on "the movies."

But there is one thing that cannot be taken away from films. And that's—celluloid.

"Ye Shall Pay" is a Selznick film-title that indicates a drive against theatre passes.

No, Geraldine, "The City of Silent Men" does not refer to Washington when Congress is in session.

Ruthless Rental Agents

Film titles are playing favorites. "Trust Your Wife," says one, while another advises "Don't Trust Your Husband."

"The Price of Happiness" for kids is that thin dime for "the movies."

Snappy Film Facts. "Black Beauty" is a horse on the screen.

"Jim the Penman" is writing for the movies.

"Rest for the Weary" indicates a peaceful theatre-hour.

Eugene O'Brien hates crowds and applause. The silent drama suits him.

"What's a Wife Worth?" asks a film-title. $1,000 on hubby's income tax.

MESSAGE FROM MYSTERY SHIP, FOUND IN BOTTLE"Alabama Special" Is Plunging Through League With Indians

By Norman E. Brown.

Two young lads who were classmates at Alabama University last winter, and a couple of years before that, are now plunging through the American league with the world's champion Indians at a pace that is making them the talk of the big show. Fans have called them the "Alabama special," because of their friendship and their teamwork.

Sewell, you'll recall, was playing at the university last year when Max Scott, Cleveland newspaper man and grid coach, tipped him off to Manager Speaker.

In the heat of the pennant drive Ray Chapman was killed. Harry Lunte, utility infielder, and Joe Evans, ex-infielder turned into an outfielder by Speaker, were given the job by the fans. For whom else did Speaker have? But Speaker showed his worth as a manager by playing to a bunch that Sewell could fill the bill. The youngster stepped into the gap and, despite moments of wildness in fielding, won popularity and a permanent place on the team over night. His hitting ability made him a strong member of the team.

This spring Riggs Stephenson, Sewell's classmate, was recommended to the Indian pilot by Scott, who is football coach at Alabama. Spoke gave the lad a trial at Dallas and exacted a promise from him to rejoin the team after the college year ends in June. Stevie returned to college. Then Bill Wambagsans, regular second baseman, and Lunte were injured before the team arrived home to start the season. Speaker sent a hurry-up call to Alabama University and asking the college officials and Stevie to help him out.

Stephenson arranged to play with the Tribe until May 1, returning at that time to complete his college course. But there's no chance of him getting away now—unless he crawls out his bedroom window at night. For he leads the team in hitting and is playing second with the best keystone sackers in the league.

FATHERS OF MEN

"HERE is much truth in the old saying, 'As the twig is bent, so the tree inclines,'" observed the retired merchant. "If a boy inclined to crookedness grew up to be a straight and reliable man, it would be nothing short of a miracle. Therefore I tremble for the future of Spoonable's boy, William Henry. He seems to be just naturally vicious."

"You're full of excisor," said the hotelkeeper politely. "All those chestnut old sayings are fakes. The patriarchs used to be always saying that the boy is the father of the man, but he isn't; and he isn't grandmother to the man, either. You can't study a boy and predict what sort of a man he's going to be, any more than the official forecaster can examine his maps and charts and tell us what the weather will be like tomorrow."

"You observe that my lardboard eye is somewhat discolored and I have a contusion on my brow, and my nose is slightly out of alignment. Yesterday I was prodding along a back street on a little errand, when I beheld a big, husky teamster pounding the sawdust out of a venerable horse that had seen better days. I went up to him and protested in the most courteous way, and he said it would afford him genuine pleasure to kick my spine up through my hat, if I didn't go my way and leave him alone. I informed him that if he hit that horse again I would push his countenance out of place, and he immediately clubbed the suffering animal harder than ever."

"I am glad to say that I succeeded in kicking most of the rind off the teamster's shins before he got me down and sat on my head, but I submit that a man who will take such chances as I did must have the cause of cruelty to animals much at heart. There's nothing makes my blood boil quicker than to see an animal abused."

"Well, when I was a boy I had wide reputation for cruelty. I used to delight in tying tin cans to the tails of dogs, and in drowning cats, and in robbing birds' nests, and all such sinful pastimes. The moralists of that period agreed that I was entitled to the mantle of Nero, and that I would come to a bad end. Yet when I became old enough to have some sense, I made pets of all the dumb critters within eight miles."

"If that old maxim about the twig and the tree were any good, it ought to work both ways, and the saintly boy always would become a grand, good man. But as a rule the truly good boys don't amount to much in after life. Nearly all our useful citizens were hard citizens when they were boys, and the shiftless, no-account men were simply angelic when they went to school."

"A boy gets tired of being immaculate after he has tried it a few years, and he goes to the other extreme. And the boy who has been a horrible example ever since he left the cradle gets sick of that sort of thing when he has cut his wisdom teeth, and he becomes so virtuous that there's no living in the same block with him."

"Most of the old sayings are foolish and trifling, and I am surprised when a grown man goes around quoting them. Yet a lot of fellows think they have clinched an argument when they drag in a bewhiskered maxim. In order to show that Spoonable's boy is foredoomed, you spring that old wheeze about the twig and the tree. You might just as well say that Mary had a little lamb, and consider the argument closed."

"I know you are suffering to remind me that people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones, but I won't stand for it."

Cure for Flat Feet.

Are you flat-footed? If you don't know, the next time you take a bath, observe the impressions that your wet feet make. If your feet are normal, there will be a narrow line from heel to toe on the outside; if they are flat, the entire bottom of the foot will show.

How can you cure flat-footedness? Buy a handful of marbles, place them in two rows, and start picking them up with your toes. To do this you must curl up your toes; as a result the muscles of the feet will be exercised and thereby strengthened.—Popular Science Monthly.

And He Meant It, Too.

On Jimmie's return home from the birthday party of a girl in the neighborhood, he was telling his mother about her mother. When the children were leaving she asked them all to wish her little girl something nice.

Whereupon Jimmie's mother said to him: "I trust that my little boy wished the little girl something nice."

"O, yes," said Jimmie, still seeing visions of cake and ice cream: "I wished her that she'd soon have another birthday."

THEY WOULD REPLACE JERRY JAZZ STEPS WITH MORE GRACEFUL DANCES

Dorothy Dickson and Carl Hyson demonstrating a step of the "Mon Homme."

Dorothy Dickson and Carl Hyson, considered two of the cleverest dancers in New York, are perfecting a new dance called "Mon Homme or the Grab Dance." The steps are graceful and gliding instead of the present short, jerk, ungraceful fox trot movements of the present. The feature of the dance is the leading, which is done for the most part by the woman instead of the man.

RITES OF MOUND BUILDERS

How "Bundle Burials" and "Burials in the Flesh" Were Conducted by Ancient Race.

After an Indian mound has been broken and surveyed it is stripped of the surface sod and excavated by a series of trenches. One mound, says the Southern Workman, contained no less than 45 "bundle burials" with two "burials in the flesh" above of later date. These "bundle" burials were disarticulated skeletons that had been taken down from trees and made into bundles. In each "bundle" as a rule, were the bones of from two to four individuals. They were placed end to end, lengthways, north to south, and formed a layer some ten feet long and five feet wide. They were placed on a carefully prepared bed of alternate layers of golden and bright-red sands, evidently of ceremonial import, and surrounded by several stone altars. On these, appropriate sacrifices were made to the dead; there were signs of fire all about. Some half-burned human bones in well-preserved oak charcoal were found near the top, indicating that some poor captive had been burned at the stake to minister to the souls of the dead on their journey to the happy hunting grounds. In the top strata were found two skeletons, both of them strongly fixed, with the knees drawn up to the chin. They were evidently of considerable age, but of later origin than the "bundle" burials. In fact, all the bones in this group of mounds showed extreme signs of decomposition. It was necessary to "pant" them all with a transfixing fluid the minute they were exposed to the air. These two skeletons were perhaps the remains of people who had died during the construction of the mounds and were given burial in the top of them.

DELIVER DAIRY GOODS CLEAN

Wholesome Products Are Best Advertisements and Any Infraction of Rules Is Harmful.

Of all the mediums of good sound advertising in the dairy industry there is not one which can excel that of "quality."

When we observe the methods of those who have really achieved in the dairy business we will find in every instance that success was made possible through the application of common sense rules of cleanliness and sanitation.

Clean wholesome dairy products are the best advertisements, and any infraction of these axiomatic first principles will work to the dairyman's disadvantage and render it difficult to repair the damage wrought.

Dairymen are, as a rule, in the business to make a success of it, and there is no single factor that will promote business faster than the production of a clean wholesome product.

CLEANLINESS OF IMPORTANCE

Utensils and Mangers in Which Calves Are Fed Should Be Given Close Attention.

Strict attention should be paid to the cleanliness of the utensils and mangers in which the calves are fed as well as to the box stalls in which they are quartered. The latter should be cleaned out at least once a week and preferably oftener.

Chamber of Commerce Will Have New Home in Granger Building

The east room of the Granger building at 207 East Main which was recently rented by F. J. McFarland and O. N. Walker will be equipped as an office room for the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, both county farm agents and as a sample room annex to the Harris hotel.

A portable partition will be run through the building, dividing the offices from the sample room and when it is desired to accommodate a large crowd the partition can be moved back to give more room.

The front windows of the building will be decorated by the county agents, who will place on exhibition a large collection of the agricultural

It is the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to invite all farm organizations of the county to establish a headquarters in the building and suitable quarters will be arranged for the secretaries of those which accept the invitation.

The room is large enough to hold care of farmers' meetings and other meetings which have for their purpose the bettering of conditions in Ada and Pontotoc county and the Chamber of Commerce is anxious to see the building become the center of community interest.

Workmen will begin the work of making the necessary changes in the interior arrangements of the building within a day or two, it is said.

The agreement was reached after attack on the resolution had been made by Senator Nixon, republican, followed by Senator Underwood, democratic leader, no other senator being ready to proceed. Senators Underwood and Lodge, republican and democratic leaders, arranged that absent members would be notified at the time for the vote and debate ended for the day with the adjournment of the senate.

DYSPEPSIA IS GREATEST ENEMY OF MODERN MAN stage is reached the loss of appetite the mental depression, and the general uncomfortable feeling in the stomach are much more pronounced. This is particularly true in acute gastritis.

It frequently occurs from continued errors in diet that this condition becomes chronic, and the symptoms persist for an indefinite period. The appetite is very apt to be varied, but at times very good. Heartburn is frequent, if not constant. The stomach is painful on pressure, the tongue is coated, there is a bad taste in the mouth, and there are changes in the amount of salivary secretion. Constipation is also usually present, although diarrhoea may alternate.

Most cases of dyspepsia can be cured if the diet is properly looked after and with the proper treatment. Proper eating, the proper amount of food and hygienic living are the most important features of the treatment. Most people eat too fast and eat too much.

One noted authority has said that the stomach is the fountain head of health or disease, as the case may be. Tanlac was designed primarily for the regulation of the stomach, liver and bowels, but it is no uncommon thing for persons who have used it to find that they have also been relieved of rheumatism and other ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble.

There is probably not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system. Next it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest the food, permitting assimilation of the nourishing elements.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by the Tanlac treatment after other remedies had failed, but many of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a general constitutional improvement more evident. When this strength by its use.

DISTRICT COURT BEGINS MONDAY

Two Week's Session Will Start Off With a Murder Trial.

A two week's session of the district court will begin here next Monday, May 2. Judge J. W. Bolen has returned from Colorado, where he went to recuperate after the strenuous session at Wewoka, two months ago, and will preside over the court. The announcement was made a month ago that because of his absence from the state some other judge would be assigned by the supreme court to preside, but Judge Bolen's return has eliminated that necessity.

Monday, the opening day, will be devoted to the disposition of motions and demurrers growing out of the 43 criminal cases on the docket, and the actual trial of cases will not likely be taken up until Tuesday.

The first case* on the docket for trial is state versus B. F. Marshall, Marshall who is charged with murder of the late Gus Nebhut, the deputy sheriff who was shot at the Byrd hotel in this city, while attempting Marshall's arrest March 19, and died of his wound the following day.

A special panel of 72 men has been drawn from the jury box for the trial of this case and it is probable that others will have to be selected before 12 men can be found who are not familiar with the details of the case.

One other murder case is on the docket for trial at this term. This is the case state versus C. E. Rowlette. Rowlette is charged with murder in connection with the death of Miss Gertrude Carlton, the young stenographer who died at the hospital here November 22, as the result of injuries received in an automobile wreck, which was due, it is said, to the carelessness of Rowlette, the driver of the car.

Classification of the other cases on the docket for trial is as follows: Grand larceny, ten cases; assault to kill, eight cases; forgery, five cases; rape, four cases; gambling, six cases; burglary, four cases; assault with deadly weapon, three cases; assault and battery, three cases; false pretenses, two cases; bogus check, two cases and perjury, one case.

The following men have been summoned to appear for jury service, Monday morning:

G. W. Jones, Francis; G. M. Thomas, Stonewall; Bruno Mayer, Stonewall; Edwin Garrett, Stonewall; S. H. Green, Stonewall; Slade Norman, Ada; P. C. Majors, Fitzhugh;

H. O. Weaver, Stonewall; Allen Stanfield, Ada; Hugh Taylor, Ada; J. M. Bradley, Vanoss; C. W. Zorn, Ada; A. W. White, Ada; Jesse Warren, Ada; Watt Jones, Allen; J. H. Bradley, Vanoss; R. O. Lawrence, Ada; Paul V. Norrell, Ada; T. W. Corbin, Center; W. F. Shockley, Ada; J. A. Hart, Fitzhugh; E. L. Rucker, Roff; J. L. Akers, Franks; N. S. Olivo, Allen; W. S. Hightower, Stratford; H. M. There have been so many fans writing in to praise or to ask about "that pretty girl who played in 'The Nut' with Fairbanks—that it seems wise to show our very newest picture of Marquerite De La Motte. So here she is, and we agree she is pretty.

Miss De La Motte comes from the far north, her home being Duluth. She was educated in San Diego, however, and began her screen career with H. B. Warner in "The Pagan God". Later she appeared in a picture with Jack Pickford and more recently she played in Metro's production of the Drury Lane melodrama, "The Hope". Her beautiful eyes are hazel and her hair is fair and she lives in Los Angeles, for those who care for detail.

Charley Studies Painting.

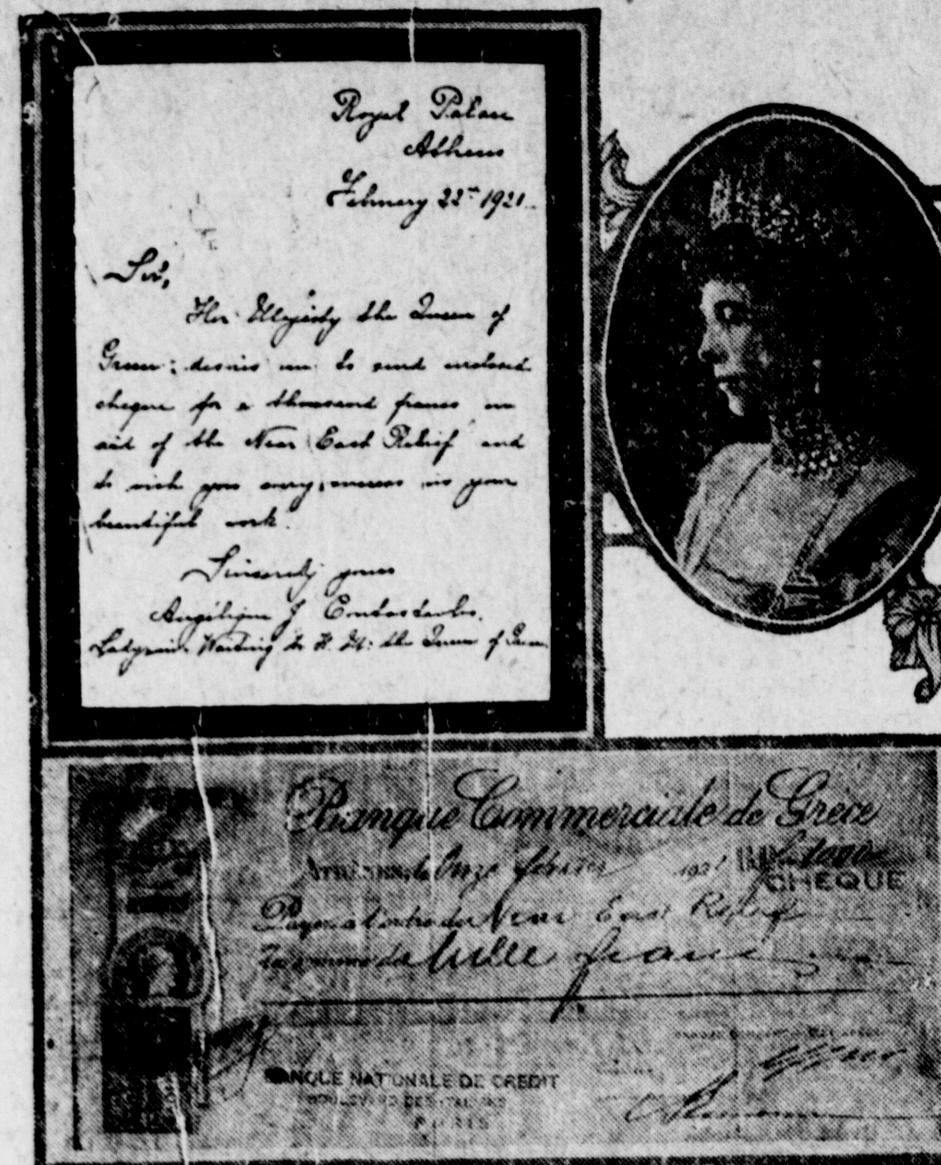

Charles Ray has taken up the study of oil paintings with no less an instructor than Rob Wagner, former head of the art department of a Los Angeles high school, who has gained later fame as the Saturday Evening Post humorist. He is teaching Ray the rudiments of oil-color, and the star, who is something of an amateur portraituer, already has commenced a canvas.

Matt Moore's Next.

Matt Moore, brother of Tom and Owen, has been cast to play opposite Seena Owen in Fannie Hurst's new story, "Back Pay," which is being directed by Frank Dzogza, the famed director of "Humoresque."

Four to five thousand drawings are required for an animated car-

HUGHES CONFERS WITH AUCKLAND GEDDES

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sir

Auckland Geddes, ambassador from Great Britain, conferred with Secretary Hughes today, arriving at the state department before Sir Auckland left. They were the last of the allied envoys to see Mr. Hughes since he laid the new German reparation proposals before them informally last Thursday.

It was understood that the counselor of the French embassy had an engagement to see Mr. Hughes during the day. He was to act for Ambassador Jusserand, who is absent from Washington and was expected to communicate the decision of his government, that the German offer was unacceptable.

Sir Auckland was with Mr.

With the recent death of James Jones, aged negro employee in the senate office building, the whereabouts of the official seal of the Confederacy, an unsolved mystery for half a century, probably will ever remain unknown. Serving as Jefferson Davis's servant when the Confederate chieftain was captured, Jones buried the seal before the Federal authorities could obtain it.

To avert the danger of forest fires caused by sparks from locomotives, the officials of the Kushequa railroad of Pennsylvania announced that no trains will be run over that road during dry weather. Inhabitants of the danger zone welcome this decision.
